

Institute of Occupational Safety and Health (IOSH) "Managing Safely Course"

This four day training course will provide a foundation of knowledge and greater awareness in relation to Health & Safety, managing and reducing risk as well as providing the understanding to produce and develop an effective company health and safety management system.

Candidates will be able to explore the practical actions required to manage health and safety considerations within their teams.

It may also be used as a knowledge update.

-
- Course content Introducing Managing safely
 - The principles of The Health Safety at Work Act 1974
 - Relevant legislation
 - Assessing risks
 - Controlling risks
 - Understanding your responsibilities
 - Identifying hazards
 - Investigating accidents and incidents
 - Measuring performance
 - Protecting our environment
 - The Legal responsibilities of employer & employee
 - Reporting & documenting
 - Role & responsibility
 - Auditing

Aims/Outcomes

- Candidates will have the knowledge and tools to respond and manage health and safety issues in the work environment
- Successful candidates will receive the IOSH Certification in Managing Safely

This course will be attended by

- Senior management, management and supervisors requiring a recognised Health & Safety qualification

On completion of the fourth day, candidates will be required to undertake an examination moderated by IOSH and a workplace project will need to be completed within two weeks.

Successful candidates will receive an IOSH accredited certificate recognised throughout industry.
Guardian Advisors